The image contains a table with financial data. The table is labeled "Draft FY 2005 Budget Worktable." Each row in the table represents different financial categories, and the columns show the amounts for each category. The table includes various financial figures and labels for different budget components. The table is detailed and appears to be used for financial planning or budgeting purposes for the year 2005.