

Regulations for recreational fishing from U.S. Canada Border to Leadbetter Point, WA (Neah Bay, La Push, and Westport subareas) have been adjusted by inseason action. Effective Friday August 17, 2007 these areas will be open 7 days per week. Landing and possession limits remain in effect as do all other restrictions and regulations as announced for the 2007 ocean salmon fisheries and by previous inseason actions.