

HIGHLY MIGRATORY SPECIES ADVISORY SPECIES REPORT ON THE NATIONAL MARINE FISHERIES SERVICE REPORT

The Highly Migratory Species Advisory Subpanel would like to inform National Marine Fisheries Service through the Council that there can be incidental catch encountered with the hammerhead and great white sharks that are being petitioned for Endangered Species Act listing. These occasional encounters would not endanger the survival of the species and some type of fishery exemption may be necessary to prevent the fisheries from being shut down.

PFMC
06/20/13