

HABITAT COMMITTEE COMMENTS ON
PLANNING SESSION ON ENHANCING COMMUNICATION WITH FISHING COMMUNITIES

The Habitat Committee endorses Council efforts to enhance communication with fishing communities and other constituent groups. Habitat issues can be an effective arena for bringing together diverse interests. Groups such as watershed councils and others that are working to restore salmon habitat should be included in communication efforts, and educated about how fishery management works and how their on-the-ground efforts complement Council management recovery strategies.

PFMC
04/10/03