

STATUS OF ODFW 2005 EXEMPTED FISHING PERMIT APPLICATION

The Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife has decided not to pursue an exempted fishing permit for 2005 and has withdrawn the draft application studying bottom trawl selectivity. The department's research priorities have shifted, and any planned at-sea research work in 2005 would be appropriately conducted under a normal Letter of Agreement process.

PFMC
11/02/04