Key Terms: Underserved Communities

Underserved communities have been systematically denied a full opportunity to participate in aspects of economic, social, and civic life.

These include geographic communities as well as populations sharing a particular characteristic such as: women and girls; Black, Latino, and Indigenous and Native American persons*, Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders, and other persons of color; persons facing discrimination or barriers related to gender identity; members of religious minorities; lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer (LGBTQ+) persons; persons with disabilities; persons who live in rural areas; and persons otherwise adversely affected by persistent poverty or inequality.

NOAA
FISHERIES

The NOAA Fisheries' draft EEJ Strategy asks:

- Who are our underserved communities?
- How can we better communicate with and serve them?
- Does everyone have equal access to benefits?
- How can we improve equity in our research and monitoring programs?
- Do some communities carry the weight of regulatory burdens more than others?
- How can our governance of management resources be more inclusive?
